The course gives you room to explore and develop your artistry in performance as well as providing you with the technical and industry knowledge needed to navigate the challenges of a screen acting career. You will learn through structured classes, workshops, masterclasses and through observing and analysing your own and your class-mates performance.

The overall methods of assessment for the Modules (for example exams, course work or practical assignments):

You will be assessed throughout the course on your ability to apply theoretical strategy and technical techniques to effectively enhance your performance in front of the camera. You will receive feedback from peers, tutors and visiting industry professionals. Your progress and learning will be assessed by the Head of the Course and visiting specialists on your completion of module assessments.

Assessment is all by course work meaning there are no timed written exams.
